

Christopher Cook

E-Mail cook@exchangechambers.co.uk
Call 1990

“Sources applaud his “superb performances in court”, stating that “he has a very nice manner that can turn to deadly aggression in an instant.” -Chambers UK 2010

Personal

Education:

BSc (Hons); BComm (Hons) University of Birmingham

Diploma in Law City University

BVC Inns of Court School of Law

Practice

Chris has a busy insolvency practice and is experienced in dealing with all forms of insolvency regime. He regularly provides insolvency litigation and advisory services in relation to:

- The implementation, continuation and termination of regimes;
- Asset recovery;
- Corporate restructuring;
- Misfeasance, preferences and transactional avoidance provisions;
- Directors' disqualification;
- Injunctive relief; and
- Jurisdictional issues.

Chris' wider commercial practice also lends itself to his acting for office-holders, creditors, shareholders and financiers in a range of matters, including intellectual property claims, licensing and assignment; fraud claims; commercial and contractual disputes; securities claims; and professional negligence.

For further information please contact Nick Buckley buckley@exchangechambers.co.uk