

David Turner Q.C.

E-Mail turnerqc@exchangechambers.co.uk
Call 1971
Silk 1991

'David Turner Q.C. continues to be a "leading light"' (Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession 2005)

'One of the best defenders on the circuit'(Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession 2002)

'[HMCE and CPS] 'went to see one of the country's leading prosecution barristers David Turner Q.C. He had immense experience in prosecuting Customs and Excise cases...' (Cocky; The Rise and Fall of Curtis Warren, Britain's Biggest Drug Barron) 'in the top band'(Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession 2001)

'popular, down-to-earth and bright'(Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession 2003)

'Did show business a disservice by staying out of it'(May Week was in June'; the autobiography of Clive James)

'David Turner Q.C. defending Thompson has assembled 247 press cuttings which compare the accused to Myra Hindley and Saddam Hussein... The argument bats back and forth; David Turner (pale fastidious, Modern) for Thompson versus Richard Henriques (tall solid Victorian)' ('As If'; Blake Morrison)