

Simon Whitfield

E-Mail whitfield@exchangechambers.co.uk
Call 2009

CALLED TO THE BAR

2009; Simon qualified as a solicitor in 1992 and was a partner at an international law firm before transferring to the Bar.

EDUCATION

MA (Cambridge), Law Society Finals at Chester College of Law, Hong Kong SAR PRC Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Commercial Disputes; all aspects of complex contractual disputes, interpretation of contractual provisions and enforcement of judgments.

Construction, Engineering & Projects; experienced in all aspects of the construction process. Acts for contractors, employers, funders, developers and professionals. He has advised on the procurement of projects through PFI and PPP in the UK and DBFO projects internationally. He regularly appears in adjudications and accepts appointments as adjudicator. Appears in the TCC and arbitrations.

Mediation; Dealing with all aspects of ADR, acting for parties in mediation. He also accepts appointments as mediator.

Professional Negligence; in particular in relation to construction professionals including architects, engineers and quantity surveyors as well as professional negligence generally.

Insolvency; administrations and liquidations of companies and personal insolvency.

Property; landlord and tenant disputes, boundary disputes and the construction of trusts.

Banking and finance; all aspects of secured lending as well as factoring agreements.

MEMBERSHIPS

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
The Adjudication Society
The Northern Circuit Commercial Bar Association
The Northern Chancery Bar Association