Criminal CV

Overview

Ray was called to the Bar of England & Wales in 2013, having practised as a barrister in Melbourne, Australia, qualifying as a Barrister in 2009 and a Solicitor in 2001. Ray has represented clients in the Magistrates and Crown Courts, and the Court of Appeal in a wide range of cases including:

- Assault and violent offences
- Acquisitive offences
- Drugs
- Public Order
- Motoring and vehicle offences
- Fraud
- Sexual offences
- Anti-social and Criminal Behaviour Orders
- Proceeds of Crime
- Appeals

Ray is a CPS Level 1 Prosecutor.

He has also been instructed by the Nursing & Midwifery Council, first as external counsel and then on secondment, appearing for the Council in both interim order applications and substantive hearings. Prior to life at the Bar, Ray served in the Royal Australian Air Force for over 20 years and attained the rank of Wing Commander. He then worked for the International Committee of the Red Cross in its Legal Division and in the field as a Delegate. Having had operational military command experience and having developed expertise in military and International Humanitarian Law, Ray is well placed to represent those effected by military law issues.

Cases

R v JT – Secured the jury acquittal at trial of a defendant accused of burglary and assault.

R v TS – Successfully renewed an application for leave to appeal against sentence refused by a single judge of the Court of Appeal. The full court granted leave and allowed the appeal, significantly reducing the appellant's sentence for two counts of assault occasioning actual bodily harm.

R v BF LTD – Secured the acquittal of a company charged with failing to provide details of one of its drivers to police, following a successful submission of no case to answer.

R v RT – Secured the acquittal in the Magistrates Court of a defendant charged with two counts of assault and one count of criminal damage in a domestic setting. In the same case, successfully argued that a guilty plea to a second count of criminal damage should be vacated and jurisdiction declined as the case had been dealt with out of time.
