Clinical Negligence CV

Overview

Paul acts for injured Claimants only. He practices exclusively in the fields of clinical negligence and personal injury. He has been involved in clinical negligence matters for many years. Prior to being called to the Bar, Paul was one of the earliest solicitor members of AVMA.

Paul is also a qualified mediator.

Recommendations

Andrew Duff of Scott Duff & Co Solicitors says “our personal injury department relies heavily upon Paul for his skill, expertise and efficiency. We have instructed and worked with Paul for many years and we regard him as a first class Barrister using his own mixture of pragmatism and knowledge of legal principles.”

Times “Lawyer of the Week” May 2008

Cases

Settled (whilst working with Bill Braithwaite Q.C.) a case for a badly brain injured young man for the gross award of £5.9m which was split up into a lump sum and periodical payments.

Obtained £1 million settlement for woman pedestrian who had had her leg amputated whilst positioned on the pavement where the Defendants were denying liability due to the automatism of the Defendant driver.

Successfully establishing liability against the owners of a factory for a Claimant who sustained serious injuries who was allegedly walking in a prohibited area when hit by a fork lift truck.

Successfully represented a Claimant driver seriously injured when involved in a road junction collision with a lorry where the road merged into one lane immediately after the traffic light controlled junction.

Successfully represented a widower whose 8 month pregnant wife was tragically pinned against a wall by a car killing the unborn child and the wife.

Successfully represented a drunken pedestrian staggering in the road who unfortunately sustained a serious brain injury with only a 30% deduction for contributory negligence.

Beyond the Bar

Paul is married with two daughters.

Paul had a long Local Government career as a Liverpool City Councillor for 34 years. He represented the County Ward Area of Walton in Liverpool undefeated for 34 years before retiring in 2010 from the City Council. He was Leader of the Opposition 1989-1992.

He had the honour of being the Lord Mayor of Liverpool during 2007/2008 and thereby opened (with Ringo Starr) Liverpool's Year of the European Capital Culture. He represented the City throughout that momentous year.

Paul is a season ticket holder of Liverpool FC and is a very keen football follower having played amateur football when younger.

Paul is a member of Woolton Golf Club and plays golf not to a high standard!
