- Employer's liability
- Public liability
- Fraud and low velocity impact cases
- Highways Act matters
- Occupier's Liability Act matters

Her multi-track practice includes advisory work, drafting and court appearances.

Rachel prides herself on her ability to forge excellent client relationships and offers a fast turnaround of work.

Rachel is happy to respond to informal requests for advice by email or otherwise.

Recommendations

“Rachel was amazing throughout the whole process. She handled every aspect of the 3-week trial with the utmost professionalism.”

Client testimonial

“You could see all of the jury members listening to every word that she said. Rachel really stood-out when she spoke and seemed to capture everyone in the room.”

Client testimonial

“She consistently made me feel at ease and confident in the case we presented. Simply put, she was excellent.”

Client testimonial

“You have gone above and beyond also in light of my financial limitations and it is a testament to your character. I have felt in very good hands, supported and reassured and had every confidence in you having my best interests at heart whilst dealing with my case and being my representation.”

“I would also like to say how brilliant Rachel Webster was, she was amazing on the court zoom meeting. Completely understood the case. I would highly recommend her (I would have said this even if I hadn't won, she was great)”

“Thank you very much for your expert work. My faith in barristers has been restored. Thank you very much.”

“Highly recommended.”

“[Rachel] did an absolutely amazing job and got our points across very well and articulately.”

“I commend the work by Miss Webster, whose judgement was impeccable. She was really positive and supportive throughout, and took a very forthright line with the claimant and his barrister.”
