Insolvency CV

Overview

Chris has a busy insolvency practice and is experienced in dealing with all forms of insolvency regime.

He regularly provides insolvency litigation and advisory services in relation to:

- The implementation, continuation and termination of regimes
- Asset recovery
- Corporate restructuring
- Misfeasance
- Preferences and transactional avoidance provisions
- Directors' disqualification
- Injunctive relief
- Jurisdictional issues

Chris' wider commercial practice also lends itself to his acting for office-holders, creditors, shareholders and financiers in a range of matters, including intellectual property claims, licensing and assignment; fraud claims; commercial and contractual disputes; securities claims; and professional negligence.

Chris is recognised for being extremely client-friendly yet a formidable advocate in court. He has both technical understanding of his subject matter and the ability to fight tooth and nail for those he represents. These attributes have helped Chris build a superb practice and he remains very much in-demand in his areas of expertise.

Recommendations

“He’s a great barrister - approachable and client-friendly, he is nonetheless very hardcore with cross-examination.”

“Technically excellent but this does not detract from real fighting qualities when they are required.”
