

Neil Cadwallader

Call 1984

Clerks' Details

👤 Lynn Salter
☎ 0161 817 2754

👤 Joe Mawson
☎ 0161 817 2753

Appointments

- Accredited Mediator
- Chancery Recorder
- Deputy Adjudicator to HM Land Registry

Memberships

- Property Bar Association
- CI Arb
- Northern Chancery Bar Association
- Northern Circuit Commercial Bar Association
- Chancery Bar Association
- Professional Negligence Bar Association
- Fellow of the Society for Advanced Legal Studies

Education

- Downside School 1972-1976
- Pembroke College, Cambridge: Philosophy 1976-1980
- The City University: Diploma in Law 1983 • MA (Cantab.), Dip. Law, Mediator (CEDR), FCI Arb, Barrister

Commercial CV

Overview

“A superb advocate with exceptional gravitas and erudition”, Neil Cadwallader is a highly rated barrister of over 30 years practice. Noted for his client skills and the breadth of his expertise and knowledge, he is able to cut through the most complex legal issues and distill them into a clear course of action.

Neil is a leader at the Bar in commercial and property law. His work for businesses, individuals, and public bodies covers almost all fields of law within the chancery and commercial areas. In the commercial field he is particularly experienced in:

- General commercial litigation
- Partnership and company law (including substantial experience in unfair prejudice petitions and related disputes)
- Commercial debt and secured lending
- Partnership and LLP disputes, particularly between professionals
- Mis-selling of derivatives
- Property related disputes of all kinds
- Commission disputes.

Recommendations

Legal 500

“Very hardworking, and will leave no stone unturned.”

“A superb advocate with exceptional gravitas and erudition.”

“Primarily handles high-value matters, often for developers and other landowners.”

“A lawyer’s lawyer.”

“Recommended for landlord and tenant.”

“Notable property and housing practices.”

“Very clever”. Neil Cadwallader is ‘extremely constructive and creative in his approach’ to property matters.”

“An extremely persuasive advocate, whom judges respond to.”

“An extremely persuasive advocate, who is refreshingly non-flamboyant.”

Chambers and Partners

“He is a pleasure to deal with; a very good orator who charms his audience into submission.” “He is extremely clever and has immense gravitas.”

“A really, really effective barrister who is excellent on partnership issues. He has a way of distilling cases down to their component parts and getting those points across to a judge in a superior fashion.”

“A very good partnership lawyer.” “An excellent advocate who is a very thorough and safe pair of hands.”

“Hugely personable and refreshingly unflamboyant advocate.” He maintains a broad chancery and commercial practice and is particularly noted for his expertise in property-related work; in partnership, “a nice and highly effective opponent”.

Clients highly rate Neil’s “forensic skills and skilful cross-examination style”, noting that he is “someone who gets to grip easily with the details of document-heavy litigation.”

“A leading junior with ‘a brain the size of a planet.’”

“A leader at the Bar in partnership.”

A leader at the Bar in Chancery law recommended for his “incisive analytical approach.”

“A leader at the Bar in in partnership (“commonsensical and dedicated”).

Recommended for his “unswerving dedication to the client.”

“Tremendous barrister” Neil Cadwallader attracted recommendations from peers and clients for his breadth of legal knowledge”.

“Described by peers as an ‘impressive and intelligent’ advocate.”

The Lawyer

A chancery expert: “very intellectual and a very good chap. A safe pair of hands.”