Commercial CV

Overview

Peter is a Chartered Surveyor who transferred to the Bar in 2013 after more than 25 years' in practice in planning and development.

Peter has brought his commercial and property sector experience to his practice at the Bar and has obtained experienced across a broad spectrum of commercial work including contract disputes, banking and finance, land and property, personal and corporate insolvency, professional negligence, residential and commercial possession proceedings and proceedings in the Employment Tribunal.

His experience enables Peter to identify and appreciate the commercial implications of any instruction and to take a considered view about possible outcomes. He has a keen, informed analytical approach and combines this with a practical understanding of the issues at hand.
