Data Protection Act

Exchange Chambers and all its members are registered under the Data Protection Act.

Professional Indemnity Insurance

Every barrister must have Professional Indemnity Insurance and this is provided by Bar Mutual (BMIF) which provides cover for individual barristers of up to £2.5 million. Bar Mutual was set up by barristers for barristers and is not a commercial insurance company. They can be contacted through Thomas Miller, who manage Bar Mutual:

Thomas Miller
90 Fenchurch Street
London EC3M 4ST
Telephone: 020 7621 0405

Members of Chambers can opt to purchase additional top up insurance cover, over and above their Bar Mutual insurance, in accordance with and determined by their individual practice requirements. Details of such additional cover can be supplied upon request by contacting the clerks.

Employers/Public Liability Insurance

Exchange Chambers is separately insured for Employers' Liability (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 1998 for £10m by Hiscox Insurance Company Ltd under Policy number PL-PSC10001247078/00. Exchange Chambers is insured for public liability with a limit of Indemnity of £10m within the same policy.
