Overview

Jason is an immensely experienced criminal and regulatory barrister with over 25 years of experience at the Bar.

The vast majority of Jason's criminal practice involves serious, complex and paper heavy cases. He has been instructed for the defence by private practice solicitors throughout the North of England in respect of all aspects of criminal work, but in particular fraud. Such prosecutions have been commenced by the SFO, DTI, CPS, ARA and Trading Standards.

In addition to instructions being received from private practice solicitors, Jason has represented defendants who are member/employees of the Police Federation, Prison Officers Association, The Post Office, The Pharmacists Society, various insurance companies, Trade Unions and Healthcare providers.

Jason has undertaken the full range of GMC hearings including IOP's including extensions before the High Court, Investigation hearings, Registration Appeals and Reviews. He is fully IT proficient and utilises the most up-to-date technology for greater efficiency in searching large amounts of documentation.
