Overview

Amie is regularly instructed in the following areas:

- Applications to set aside statutory demands and contested bankruptcy petitions
- Winding up petitions, including applications to prevent their advertisement or to contest the petition
- Remuneration applications
- Company restorations

Recent insolvency work Amie has undertaken includes:

- Advising on and successfully winding up a company incorporated by Royal Charter in the 1800s.
- Acting on behalf of the First Respondent in Re Farrar Construction Limited [2022] EWHC 24 (Ch).
- Private examination hearings pursuant to section 366 applications and a section 236 application in the High Court.
- Advised on the viability of section 130(2) Insolvency Act 1986 in a retrospective capacity where default judgment had been granted in respect of a claim against a company in liquidation.
- Advised in relation to the routes available for resolving a dispute between directors of a company concerning the appropriate value of a director's shareholding, considering the viability of a potential unfair prejudice petition, petitioning the winding up of the company or resolving matters by way of accountancy and negotiation.
