Employment CV

Overview

He has extensive experience in employment litigation, advice and drafting. He is regularly instructed by a number of Government Departments, local authorities, individuals and businesses in Employment Tribunal, EAT and High Court litigation.

His areas of expertise include unfair/wrongful dismissal, injunctive relief, discrimination and equal pay, TUPE, restrictive covenants, confidentiality and fiduciary duties, commercial aspects of pay and incentives and tax.

Recommendations

“Really knowledgeable and deploys that knowledge well.”

Chambers and Partners (2022)

“He “gives practical advice” and is “trusted as a safe pair of hands.”

Chambers and Partners (2021)

“Clear advice, easy to action, pragmatic and straightforward.”

Legal 500 (2021)

“He is experienced in VAT and is user-friendly.”

Chambers and Partners (2020)

“His technical knowledge and thoroughness of preparation and attention to detail was first-rate.”

“He’s trusted with some serious work.”

Chambers and Partners (2019)

“He manages to get the balance right between being technical whilst being very commercially aware.”

Chambers and Partners (2018)

“...deals with corporate and personal tax advice and tax litigation. He is also involved in pensions.” “Efficient and hard-working, he is a bright lad who is responsive to what solicitors and clients need.”

Chambers and Partners (2012)

“...consistently impressing with his clear grasp of accountancy matters, attention to detail and ability to make cogent arguments in favour of his client.” His practice takes in general corporate advisory work and litigation. Personal tax and VAT are also key areas of strength. Clients enthusiastically comment that he “is always well prepared and has the ability to think around contentious points.”

Chambers and Partners (2011)

“...recommended for pensions.”
