Practice Overview

Amie was called to the Bar in 2019 and became a tenant of Exchange Chambers in September 2021 following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Andrew Vinson and James Malam.

Amie has a commercial and chancery practice that includes commercial litigation, insolvency (corporate and personal), property and trusts. Across those areas, Amie regularly appears in the County and High Courts for interlocutory hearings and trials. She is also frequently instructed to draft statements of case and formal advice.

Amie advises clients in conference, in writing and has experience in dealing with claims from start to finish, providing informal advice and guidance throughout the course of proceedings.

Outside of her practice, Amie is regularly involved in the training provided by The Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn for students. Amie is also an interviewer for the Inn's major scholarships and a pupil mentor on behalf of the Chancery Bar Association.

Recommendations

"I have become used to receiving a high level of service from Exchange Chambers with Counsel being approachable and happy to assist, as well as being knowledgeable and providing great advice. Amie fits the Exchange Chambers mould in both of these regards"

"Amie made an excellent impression"

"Amie was very competent and understanding of the case"

"My colleague was impressed with Amie"
