Beyond the Bar

Simon played first class cricket for a couple of seasons as an opening batsman, including a tour of Pakistan, is a Cambridge Blue, and captained several of the Yorkshire youth cricket teams. He played representative football, among other sports, and maintains an interest in the sporting world generally.

He grew up in Ilkley and in North Wales, and now lives in Yorkshire.

Commercial CV

Overview

Simon has a commercial and civil practice and sits, part-time, as a Deputy District Judge on such matters within the County Court.

He has acted for major businesses in the finance, energy and brewing sectors, as well as for small and medium sized enterprises and for private individuals. Simon has experience in litigation involving contractual disputes, professional negligence, directors' duties, unfair prejudice petitions, defamation, insolvency matters, injunctions, and possession. He has appeared in the High Court, in fast track and small claims trials and a relatively wide range of application hearings.

Simon was appointed Junior Counsel to the Crown in 2015 on the Attorney General's regional civil panel for a period of five years and reappointed in 2020. As such, in addition to his broader practice, he regularly advises and represents major government departments and ministers. He also has substantial experience working with local authorities and with business more generally.
