Overview

Ben runs a thriving business and property practice.

Ben's practice covers four main areas; general commercial, Insolvency (both personal and corporate), banking and finance, and property. Ben is regularly instructed in each of the aforementioned sectors to provide written advisory and drafting work, and to attend court.

As well as contentious court work, Ben also has experience of alternative dispute resolution, having successfully represented clients in mediation. After Ben's successful brokering of such a settlement, Ben's instructing solicitor provided the following feedback to Chambers' senior management:

"He went above and beyond and I look forward to instructing him again on other matters!"

Prior to coming to the bar, Ben held two non-qualified positions. The first was in the office of general counsel of a "big four" accountancy firm and the second was in the banking and finance team of a major Northern Irish law firm. These experiences have shaped his practice to date.

The clients have been very happy with his services, they are a private paying couple, the fees for dealing with the matter have been kept reasonable and as ever more work has not doubt been done and not charged for.

We have been very pleased with the service from Ben and would recommend his services to anyone."

Beyond the Bar

Ben is an avid guitarist, having played (or, at least, attempted to play) the instrument since the age of 5. His obsession with the instrument sees him attempt to source a guitar shop on each of his travels to the various court centres up and down the jurisdiction to which he is sent.
