Police Law CV

Overview

Zarreen was called to the Bar in 2017. She became a tenant of Exchange Chambers in January 2023 following the successful completion of her common law pupillage.

Zarreen has represented officers in criminal courts across the country.

Cases

R v SB – represented a police officer in the sentencing hearing whereby she received a fine and disqualification for driving over the prescribed limit.

Recommendations

“Thank you, an exceptional result” – instructing solicitor

‘Excellent representation, and highly recommended. Zarreen is very knowledgeable, and experienced in her field, and gave me hope of some justice. The case was discontinued in court!’

‘I’m writing to say thank you for Zarreen’s help who managed to provide me with a result that I am extremely happy with. I’d like to say that Zarreen was very professional but also very calming towards myself which put me in the right mindset when standing before the judge’s. Once again a big thank you to her.’

‘I’m writing to say thank you to Zarreen. She was magnificent. I have already praised her to my family and work colleagues. Once again thank you very very much for Zarreen representing me in court.’

Beyond the Bar

Zarreen enjoys keeping fit
