Personal Injury CV

Trudi is regularly instructed by claimants and defendants in personal injury cases. She undertakes work in all areas of personal injury, including:

- road traffic accidents,
- occupiers liability,
- public liability,
- employers liability.

She has a very busy trial practice, but also regularly attends CCMCs and other hearings requiring complex procedural arguments.

Alongside her fast-track practice, she acts as junior to two senior members of chambers in high value brain injury cases. She has drafted complex applications in the course of this work, and has been able to gain exposure to cases worth in excess of £1 million. She has drafted advice, assisted with drafting of schedules of loss and attended expert conferences.

Trudi often provides training to solicitors on all elements of personal injury work and appears at personal injury seminars.

She is happy to provide informal advice on request.
