Motoring and Vehicle Crime CV Overview

Drawing on a decade of experience as a solicitor specialising in personal injury and road traffic matters, Rachel quickly developed a driving offence practice on converting to the Bar.

As part of the Exchange Driving Team, Rachel has gained a reputation for her understanding and successful deployment of expert evidence when prosecuting or defending these cases. Specific areas include collision investigation, medical defences, forensics and engineering.

Recommendations

“You have been a total rock not only for me but you... took time to explain the case to my son so he was also clear on certain aspects.

The way you defended me on my trial was outstanding, the work you do is amazing.”

Client testimonial

“Rachel was amazing throughout the whole process. She handled every aspect of the 3-week trial with the utmost professionalism.”

Client testimonial

“You could see all of the jury members listening to every word that she said. Rachel really stood-out when she spoke and seemed to capture everyone in the room.”

Client testimonial

“She consistently made me feel at ease and confident in the case we presented. Simply put, she was excellent.”

Client testimonial

“You have gone above and beyond also in light of my financial limitations and it is a testament to your character. I have felt in very good hands, supported and reassured and had every confidence in you having my best interests at heart whilst dealing with my case and being my representation.”

“I would also like to say how brilliant Rachel Webster was, she was amazing on the court zoom meeting. Completely understood the case. I would highly recommend her (I would have said this even if I hadn't won, she was great)”

“Thank you very much for you expert work. My faith in barristers has been restored. Thank you very much.”

“Highly recommended.”

“[Rachel] did an absolutely amazing job and got our points across very well and articulately.”

“I commend the work by Miss Webster, whose judgement was impeccable. She was really positive and supportive throughout, and took a very forthright line with the claimant and his barrister.”
