Overview

Mark has been practising as a barrister for 34 years. His practice encompasses regulatory work and civil litigation. He has a wealth of experience and is regularly instructed in demanding and complex litigation.

Mark is able to provide precise and reliable advice to individuals and companies on such issues as may arise from data breaches, credit hire, or on the increasingly relevant and important issues arising out of undisclosed commissions.

"Mark is excellent. He is great with clients and is a strong advocate."
The Legal 500, 2022

"He's methodical, always well prepared and a really thorough advocate....He's super experienced and very good on his feet."
