Clinical Negligence

James has experience of and is developing a clinical negligence practice including inquest work. He welcomes instructions to advise and act on a broad range of clinical negligence matters and cases in the Coroner's court.

Recent experience includes an inquest where he assisted the representation of a GP, following the death of a child, following complications arising from a congenital diaphragmatic hernia.

James understands the sensitive nature of clinical negligence work and treats all his clients with compassion and empathy.

Recommendations

“I’m not sure if this is possible but I would like to pass on my sincere gratitude to Mr Kinsey who represented me, he was absolutely fantastic and a credit to his instructing solicitors!”

“I would also ask you to pass on my gratitude to my barrister. What an excellent choice of an individual to represent me, your solicitors, himself and his Chambers. It must be noted that immediately I was placed at ease by his attitude although incredibly professional and knowledgeable he was also human without the aloofness one would associate with a barrister. The questions and instructions given to me enabled me to go into court, answer and stand up to cross examination and give honest consistent responses which resulted in the successful outcome of my claim.”

Client testimonials

“I’m glad you felt relaxed with James. He is lovely and a great barrister, with a particular eye for detail”
